GIVING NEW LIFE TO OLD SHOES

A newly founded Bucks County organization is collecting used shoes in Warminster to pass along to those in need.

Re-use Your Shoes, a new effort founded by Bucks County resident Kevin Kane, is putting those unused shoes on feet that need them. The organization, which was started just this fall, has drop boxes for unwanted shoes throughout Bucks County, including each location of First National Bank.

Re-use Your Shoes collects all types of shoes, including sneakers, dress shoes, and boots. Once collected, Kane and his team of six volunteers pass the shoes along to a handful of area organizations that aid people in need.

Beneficiaries include the Bethesda Project, a men's homeless shelter in Philadelphia, and the Laurel House, a sanctuary for female domestic abuse victims and their children located in Norristown. Additionally, Libertae, a program that helps women transition to the work force after overcoming drug addiction, receives dress shoes so the women have appropriate attire to wear to job interviews.

Re-use Your Shoes accepts shoes in any condition. Shoes in good, wearable shape are passed along to be used immediately by people in need. But shoes that are deemed "beyond wearable" (holes, excessive dirtiness) are donated to Nike's recycling program. Nike grinds up the soles of sneakers to make a material used for playground bases, Kane explained.

TvS received this information from Betsy Crofts from Newtown Friends Meeting.

News about Rabbi Anna

Rabbi Anna is participating in a “clergy exchange” through the Newtown Ministerium, the Newtown interfaith clergy group. As part the exchange, Rabbi Anna will be attending services at the Lutheran Church of God’s Love on Sunday, April 10th, where she will be speaking about Ezekiel’s famous vision of “dry bones” coming alive. Then, Pastor Laura Ingersol of God’s Love will be joining us at our second night Passover Seder on April 19th.

Rabbi Anna’s article, “Finding a Place for Passionate Debate on the State of Israel” was published in the March 24, 2011, issue of Philadelphia’s weekly Jewish Exponent. You can read it online at www.jewishexponent.com/article/23116.

Spiritual Life News

The next Spiritual Life Committee meeting will be Wednesday, April 6 @ 7–8:30 p.m. We will meet at my house at 1 Eton Rd, Yardley Pa. 19067.

Please call Arnie or me with questions. See you then. – Diane Gold, Spiritual Life Chair

TvS Community Seder

Do you have ideas for our community seder? Rabbi Anna is seeking people to think creatively and scheme with her about our second night community seder. She would like to meet once, maybe twice, before the seder, so if you are interested, please email or call her.

Rabbi Anna: rabianna@gmail.com or 215-287-5128.

And Elana Braz is coordinating the food for our seder once again. She urges you to...

“Get your pekalach ready to leave Egypt with our awesome leader Anna/Moshe. As in the past we are planning for a wondrous journey through the hagaddah and the desert. Please be in touch with Elana to coordinate the flavors of the manna we will share.”

Elana: elanabraz@verizon.net or (215) 750-0836

As part a “clergy exchange” through the Newtown Ministerium, the Newtown interfaith clergy group, Pastor Laura Ingersol of Lutheran Church of God’s Love will be joining us at our second night Passover Seder on April 19th. Please welcome Pastor Laura — it will be her first Jewish seder!

Update: TvS and Shabbat Dinners

In September 2010 we launched another way for the TvS family to be connected. This was to open our homes and celebrate the meaning we each give to the Sabbath and to do so with other TvS family members.

In October, the first lovely Shabbat dinner, discussion and song was held in the home of the Kitces/Fishman family with invited guests. Each month another member opens their home and culinary delights to honor the commandment of setting aside the seventh day and to make it different and uniquely different from the rest of the week.

Joan Amatniek/Max Yaffe, Talia Delone, Jeannie Ryersbach/Zvi Schram, Debbie and Victor Chong brought the Sabbath in with laughter, conversation, banter, jokes, music, prayers and a table spread with the joy of abundance for their invited guests. One Friday evening in February Elana Braz/George Reese will have guests in their living room and around the dinner table to reflect their unique way of lifting and shifting their hearts and thoughts for their guests. We are pleased that each month, through June, has a designated host and home.

There are some of us who offer the richness of this beautiful, reflective period more than the one time we signed up and there are those who make Shabbat happen every month though they are not on the list. If you are interested to become part of this, as an invited guest or as a host, please contact Jeannie/Jeanlu Ryersbach at 215-943-4565 or Ryersbach@gmail.com

Shabbat Shalom,
Jeanlu Ryersbach

RECONSTRUCTIONIST JUDAISM CLASSES

TAUGHT BY RABBI ANNA BOSWELL-LEVY

SUNDAYS MARCH 6, 13, AND 27 AT 3:30 P.M.

AT GEORGE SCHOOL, LANGHORNE-NEWTOWN RD., NEWTOWN, PA

Have you been wondering what Reconstructionist Judaism is all about and what makes Tzedek v'Shalom a Reconstructionist congregation? Rabbi Anna will be giving a three-part class series on the fundamentals of this uniquely American stream of Judaism on Sundays in March at George School.

We will explore the historical context that gave rise to Reconstructionism in the early- and mid-twentieth century, the vision of its founder Rabbi Mordecai M. Kaplan, and the core principles of the movement — all in a safe space where we can candidly share our thoughts and questions.

This class is open to everyone in the congregation, as well as those not (yet!) affiliated with Tzedek v'Shalom. All participants are asked to sign-up in advance and to read the book, Exploring Judaism: A Reconstructionist Approach by Rabbis Jacob Staub and Rebecca Alpert, which can be ordered online.

For further information, contact Tzedek v'Shalom at 215-860-0119.

LUNCH AND LEARN

At the Newtown Friends Meeting House on Saturday April 2.

A light lunch follows Saturday morning services and then we will convene at 1 p.m. with our speaker.

JEWISH VIEWS OF THE AFTERLIFE IMPLICATIONS AND APPLICATIONS

with Guest Speaker Simcha Raphael, PhD

Does Judaism believe in the afterlife? Unequivocally, the answer is yes! Unfortunately, in the contemporary Jewish community many people are all-too-often unaware of traditional Jewish wisdom on the afterlife journey of the soul. In this presentation, we shall explore Judaism's teachings on life after death, particularly in Kabbalistic Judaism. We shall also endeavor to understand the contemporary relevance of these teachings in dealing with the human encounter with death, and in the practice of contemporary Jewish rituals.

Simcha Raphael, PhD is Adjunct Assistant Professor in the Religion Department of Temple University, a Rabbinic Intern of the Jewish Hospice Network of JFCS, and in a private practice as a transpersonal psychotherapist and spiritual director, affiliated with Mt. Airy Counseling Center. Ordained by Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi as a Rabbinic Pastor, he is completing a program of Rabbinical Ordination at the Academy for Jewish Religion, in Riverdale, NY, and is the author of Jewish Views of the Afterlife.

All members of TVS and the Jewish community are welcome to attend. Please let us know if you will be attending by contacting Diane Gold at agoldn1@aol.com or call Joel Bacher at 215-860-3565.

Donations would be appreciated to help defray the cost of this program and other adult education programs.

Please send your donations to: TvS at P.O. Box 863, Newtown Pa, 18940

We wish to thank Joseph Levine and Sons for their generous contribution to this program.

Purim Thank You's...

...are too numerous to mention, but we'll try! Jordyn Friedman and Michela Lewis were our fabulous Shpielmeisters who kept us on our toes remembering what holiday we were actually celebrating! Wendy wore too many hats to keep straight, but we must mention her witty limericks. Joel did a great job organizing the shpiels so we knew who was on first (or was What on first?). Everyone who shpielied was FABULOUS. And we must send a "shout out" for the special appearance by none other than Justin Bieber. Who knew he was Jewish?!

Synopsis

This film is so much more than a documentary about Jews, sports and baseball. This is a story of immigration, assimilation, bigotry, heroism, the passing on of traditions, and the shattering of stereotypes.

The story is brought to life through Dustin Hoffman's narration and interviews with dozens of passionate and articulate fans, writers, executives, and especially players, including Al Rosen, Kevin Youkilis, Shawn Green, Bob Feller, Yogi Berra, and a rare interview with the Hall of Fame pitcher Sandy Koufax.

Fans including Ron Howard and Larry King connect the stories of baseball to their own lives and to the turbulent history of the last century. Their stories are inter-cut with dramatic and never-before-seen film clips and photos of great Jewish players, unforgettable games, and the broad sweep of American history.
